“He who loves Me most, always sees Me. The whole world is desolate to him without Me. He tells no stories but Mine. I feel indebted to him who surrenders himself to Me completely and ever remembers Me. I shall repay his debt by giving him salvation. With no trace of pride and egoism surrender yourself to Me, who am seated in your heart.”

“Those who are fortunate and whose demerits have vanished take to My worship.”

“I have to give back hundred times more of what I receive.”

- Sri Sai Satcharita

“Sankalpa” is a Sanskrit word - made of ‘San’ (good) and ‘Kalpa’(Veda or Shastra) – meaning resolution or determination to do some auspicious activity (karma) in a Vedic way. The Vedas declare that the whole Universe is evolved through the Sankalpa of the Lord. A Sankalpa consists the elements of time, location, almanac, lineage, purpose (wish/desire), Deity, nature and mode of karma. Without Sankalpa, no objective can be accomplished. Performing Sankalpa eradicates the feeling of doership or ahankara. In Bhagavata Purana, Lord emphasized that humans acquire lot of merit just by the ‘Sankalpa’ to perform virtuous actions. Sri Satya Narayana Vrat illustrates the power of ‘Sat Sankalpa’, wherein the devotees are bestowed with whatever they wished just by the mere ‘Sankalpa’ to perform the Vrat. The mere ‘Sankalpa’ of Nana Saheb Chandorkar, to surrender to Baba for help, saved his pregnant daughter and helped her deliver safely. Sai Baba always encouraged good thoughts – ‘Sat Sankalpa’ - as revealed by Hemadpant, in his own case to recite Sri Rama Naam all day on one Thursday during his stay at Shirdi (Sri Sai Satcharita).
